Dear Katie,

For your one true love, would you stretch to six-geese-a-laying? Eight-maids-a-milking? Maybe eleven pipers piping?

Traditionally, Christmas is a time to express love through feasting and gifts.

Maybe that's why the 12 Days of Christmas is a favourite carol amongst children, with its riotous, seemingly endless list of extravagant presents.

Today, exactly six weeks until Christmas Day, you may have started planning festive food and buying Christmas presents.

But for many children in the UK, there will be no presents and no feasting. Instead, there will be the feeling of guilt for a parent who can't afford a gift for their children, the isolation of a family without enough to eat.

That's why we're launching our 'More Than A Meal' Christmas Appeal. In churches across the nation, TLG Make Lunch clubs create safe spaces offering nutritious meals, fun activities and friendships for children and families.

This Christmas, we're asking you to consider making an extra gift so we can deliver more help where it's needed most. Our plan is to open ten new TLG Make Lunch clubs in 2025.

Watch the video below to find out how Sheddocksley Baptist Church, Aberdeen did just that, bringing hope to their community.

“ TLG Make Lunch provides more than a meal at Christmas time. It's actually a place at the table – and not just our church's table but the King's table, where all these kids are welcome and wanted. ”

- PASTOR SIMON, ABERDEEN

With a further 100,000 children experiencing relative poverty since last year, the need is great and urgent. We need to act.

Could you bless a child with a place at the King's table this Christmas?

✨ I'll give more than a meal this Christmas ✨

Blessings and peace to you and your loved ones,
